Expectations

- In Year 5/6 we want the children to become more independent. They should be responsible for their PE kits on (Tuesday and Wednesday), lunch boxes, water bottles, and other personal items.
- We also encourage them to be role models for the younger children.
- This is to help them prepare for high school.

SMART Rules

Safe	Motivation	Attitude	Respect	Try
We keep each other safe.	We are motivated to succeed.	We have good learning attitudes.	We respect people and property.	We try our best at all times.

Behaviour & Rewards

The teacher will record disruptive behaviour on her clipboard. If a child has earned 3 marks before break time, they will have restorative conversation with teacher. If the child has earned 6 marks throughout the day, the teacher will contact a parent.

Positive Rewards Include:

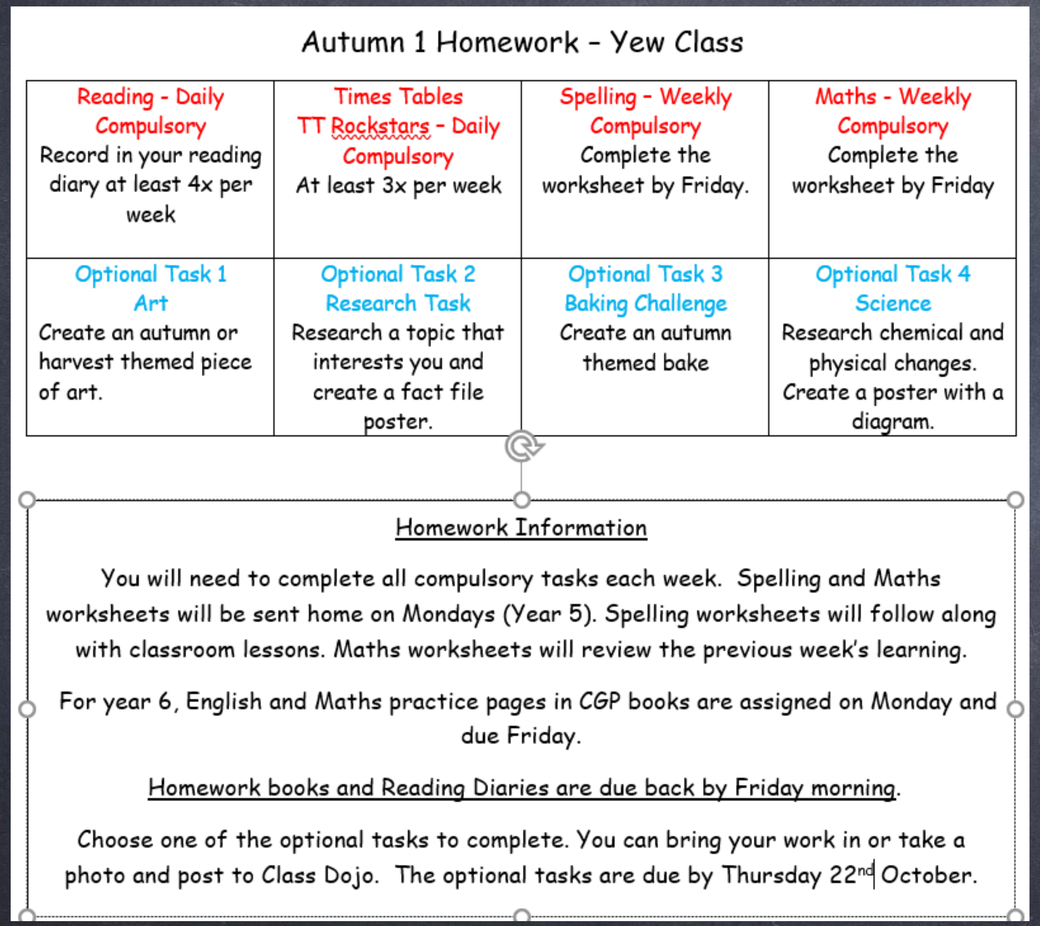

Praise

Daily House points (Green to Rainbow to Star)

Weekly Learning behaviour award

Weekly Headteachers award
